Abstract

A process for the manufacture of an edible plastic W/O-emulsion spread using common spread starting materials and employing a traditional spread processing line comprising mixing and cooling devices, except that for the final cooling and crystallizing step a single-screw cooler with a special very tight clearance of screw and barrel is employed. The single-screw cooler allows controlled working and deep cooling of the spread material.